

ROMIE

Companionship service as a point solution in resolving social isolation related physical inactivity for seniors

Team

Kailin Xu MsC
(Co-founder, CEO)

Harvard TH Chan School of Public Health,
CRA life science strategy consulting

Epidemiology of Aging, Post-acute care outcome, SoDH, SNF clinical health worker, Early stage digital health startup

Akira Shimabukuro, MD. MPA. MPH
(Co-founder, CMO)

Harvard Kennedy School of Government
Health and Global Policy Institute

Health system reform, SoDH, Primary care/Internists, Social behavioral science, Digital health

Dr. Joe Coughlin
Director of MIT AgeLab (Advisor)

Sandra Harris
State President, AARP MA
(Collaborator)

Loneliness and social isolation drastically increase risks of diseases and death

General population

Dementia

Stroke

Heart disease

All cause early mortality

Heart failure patients

Hospitalization

ED visits

Death

Risk increased

0

20%

40%

60%

80%

Social isolation is prevalent among people age 65+ and generates huge economic burden

Retired

48.6 M

95%

Living separately from children & other family members

Living Alone

14.7 M

$7 B

Additional cost of medicare spending for socially isolated adults 65+

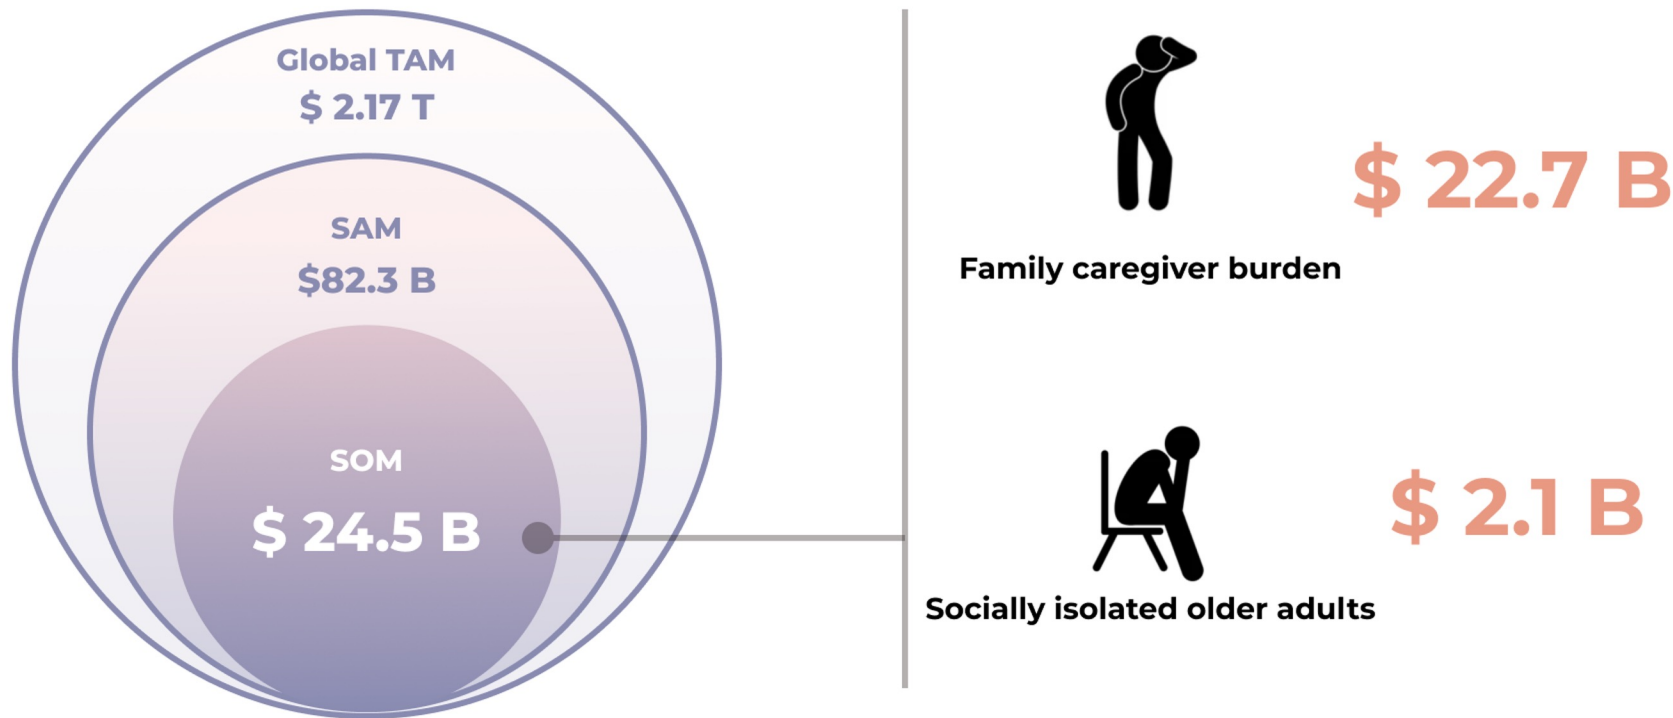

Caregiver for older adults

43 M

$12,000

Annual spending to care for an elderly from long distance

Social isolation market size

Note: Calculation made with the assumption that the penetration rate is 30%

Current solutions only offer home-bound companionship

Romie Health: Companionship service as a point solution in resolving social isolation & related physical inactivity for people age 65+

- Evidence-based Companion as a behavioral intervention that increases motivation for seniors to go outdoor and increase physical activities
- Provides assurance for fear of fall, accidents, and unfamiliar situations

On-demand

- Romie Health: Assisted companionship that takes seniors outdoor, motivate physical activity, and encourage a healthier lifestyle

One-on-one Companionship

Customized Activity Planning

Personalized experience with Romie Health

4:20

ROMIE

Medical History

Do you need any assisted devices

How long do you usually walk

Language

...

4:20

Go Out with Romie

 Go out with Sarah again
3 days

Romie buddies near you:

Dorothea Laura Ivy

Popular locations near you:

Charles River Esplanade Har Mu

...

4:20

Dorothea

★★★★★

89% match

Profile

-  English, Spanish
-  Lives in Watertown
-  Loves gardening
-  Ride sharing
-  Assist with wheelchair
-  Walking support
-  54 years old

Clinically significant measures to monitor seniors' behavioral changes

Clinically significant measures are tracked passively through mobile phone and actively from user surveys

Romie Buddies offer quality companionship and ensure the safety of the seniors

Benefits of buddies

- ✓ Flexible working hours
- ✓ Financial reward
- ✓ Training support
  - Safe transfer techniques and ambulation
  - Communication skills
- ✓ Health insurance and career development

Onboarding

Background check

Romie personality assessment

Identity
verification

Professional training & test

Covid-19
vaccination

Virtual interview

Responsibilities

Appendix

Romie's systematic measure prioritizes safety and provides respite to family caregiver

Real-time Security Monitoring

Front end

Family real-time location tracking and guardian updates

Back end

1. Real-time noise-robust speech detection, voice recognition, and NLP

2. Pre-labeled sensitive content including abusive languages and susceptible fraud

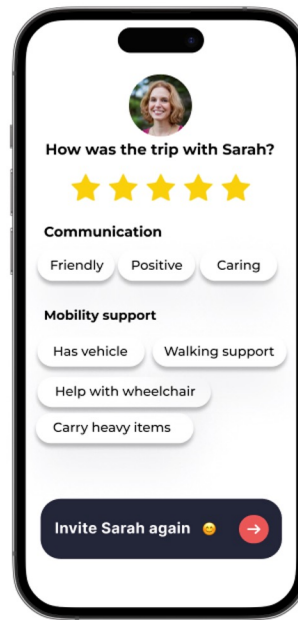

3. Alert system and family caregivers when suspect behavior detected

- GDPR & HIPPA compliant
- Data will be securely stored with restricted access
- Only alert will be shared

Review

Star rating & review

Romie delivers unique value in addressing user needs

|                                       | Human interaction                                                                                        |                                                                                                                                             |                                                                                                                                               | Technology solutions                                                                                                                         |                    | Managed care            |                       |
|---------------------------------------|----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|---------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|--------------------|-------------------------|-----------------------|
|                                       | Romie Health | Papa Health<small>Human interaction</small> | Wider Circle<small>Community building</small> | Pyx Health<small>Digital companion</small> | Home Robots | Home Health Care | Companion Care |
| On-demand services             | ✓                                                                                                        | ✓                                                                                                                                           | ✗                                                                                                                                             | ✓                                                                                                                                            | ✓                  | ✗                       | ✗                     |
| Personalized experience        | ✓                                                                                                        | ✗                                                                                                                                           | ✗                                                                                                                                             | ✓                                                                                                                                            | ✓                  | ✓                       | ✗                     |
| Improve physical activity      | ✓                                                                                                        | ✗                                                                                                                                           | ✗                                                                                                                                             | ✗                                                                                                                                            | ✗                  | ✗                       | ✗                     |
| Meaningful interaction         | ✓                                                                                                        | ✓                                                                                                                                           | ✓                                                                                                                                             | ✗                                                                                                                                            | ✗                  | ✗                       | ✓                     |
| Longitudinal health monitoring | ✓                                                                                                        | ✓                                                                                                                                           | ✗                                                                                                                                             | ✓                                                                                                                                            | ✗                  | ✗                       | ✗                     |
| One-on-one                     | ✓                                                                                                        | ✓                                                                                                                                           | ✗                                                                                                                                             | ✓                                                                                                                                            | ✓                  | ✗                       | ✓                     |